Background Information:

Dublin Rape Crisis Centre (DRCC) has a twofold mission: to prevent the harm and heal the trauma of all forms of sexual violence in Ireland. DRCC provides therapeutic and first response services through the 24/7 National Helpline and face-to-face therapy. Providing accompaniment and support to those who attend the Rotunda Sexual Assault Treatment Unit, Garda Stations, and the Courts, we also offer education and training programmes for a wide variety of professionals and volunteers who work with those who have experienced sexual violence.

The Role:

DRCC continues to expand its therapy team and now wish to recruit two Adult Psychotherapists to offer appointments from our Balbriggan Satellite Office two days per week and one day in Leeson Street. We are now inviting applications for qualified Adult Psychotherapists.

You will provide face-to-face crisis counselling and psychotherapy services to adults who have experienced recent or past rape, sexual assault and/or childhood sexual abuse.

Successful candidates must hold a minimum degree qualification in Adult Psychotherapy and must have a minimum 2 years' experience in psychotherapeutic work and be fully accredited at the time of application with either IAHIP, IACP, BACP or other modalities of ICP.

If you have the requirements we need and a passion for providing high quality therapeutic psychotherapy, we would love to hear from you!
